A WAVE OF VIOLENCE

An Outbreak of Crime Keeps Officers Busy for Two Evenings.

SALOON ROW SATURDAY NIGHT

Italian Stabbing Affray Sunday Night. Man Charged With Breaking and Entering. Fighters Arrested. The Stabbers Escape. Looking for Them.

The police had considerable business to attend to Saturday and Sunday nights in addition to the usual list of drunks.

The first excitement occurred Saturday night soon after 10 o'clock, when there was a lively fight in Cavanaugh's saloon on Main street. A large crowd gathered in front of the saloon, it being estimated that there were 300 persons there. Captain Parrow and Officers Scully and Rosasco hurried to the place as soon as they learned of the disturbance, but the fight was over before they arrived. The officers dispersed the crowd and got the names of the men engaged in the fight, and Sunday night four of the six, Thomas Stewart, Thomas Dillon, Thomas O'Brien and John Cunningham, were arrested. James and Henry Cody, who were also in the scrape, appeared at court voluntarily this morning, having learned that they were wanted.

All were charged with disturbing the peace. Thomas O'Brien and Henry Cody pleaded guilty and the others pleaded not guilty, saying they were simply trying to stop the fight. O'Brien said he was attacked by Cody without provocation and that he was knocked down while trying to defend himself. In the melee he could not tell who hit him. It was a noisy and disgraceful row, but no one was badly hurt, one or two black eyes being about the only evidence of violence noticeable this morning. O'Brien and Henry Cody were fined $10 each and the complaints against the other men were not pressed.

Italian Stabbing Affray.
It was reported to Captain Parrow Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock by Officer Rosasco that an Italian had been stabbed on State street. The captain and Officer Rosasco went to the place and found George Vicari in a small room at 84 State street, bleeding and suffering from three wounds that looked like knife cuts. The young man complained of great pain and said he was caused by a small, deep cut between the ribs about four inches below the nipple of the left breast. There was a larger slash on the left arm just above the elbow, and another on the back at the shoulder blade. Dr. Dewey was called as speedily as possible and dressed the man's wounds which are not considered dangerous.

Vicari charged Joseph and Peter Garrello with the assault, which he and his friends say was provoked. He says he and his friends stood on the street talking and laughing when suddenly some men came out of a house near by under the impression that the men on the street were having fun at their expense. Vicari says that he ran after being struck and that he was stabbed while running.

The accused men have not yet been found and Chief Kendall thinks they have left the city. He has notified the officers in all the neighboring towns and cities and the fugitives will doubtless be arrested. They are brothers and are described as follows: Peter, 13 years, 140 pounds, 5 feet 5, dark complexion, black eyes, dark suit, soft hat, Joseph, 24 years, 140 pounds, 5 feet 7, fair complexion, brown eyes, smooth face, gray suit, speaks good English.

Breaking and Entering.
Joseph Bolduc was arrested Sunday night on the charge of breaking and entering. He had been boarding at J. J. McCusker's, 116 River street, and McCusker claims Bolduc owes him about $27 for board. Bolduc got into the house to get his things from the room he had occupied, hence the arrest. In court this morning he pleaded not guilty and was held in $50 bonds for trial June 14.

BY TELEGRAPH MAY COME TO WILLIAMS

The Berkshire College Likely to Have a Royal Student, Who Is to be King of Corea.

(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

San Francisco, June 7.—There is probably a considerable honor in store for Williams college in Massachusetts.

Prince Eul Wba, who will probably succeed to the throne of Corea on the death of his father, the reigning king, arrived here yesterday on the steamship Coptic from the Orient.

The young man who is only 20 years of age came to America to finish his education in some Eastern institution of learning where he can take a three years' course in English branches.

It seems probable from his plans that he will visit Williams college and there complete the education he has come to this country for.

Prince Eul Wba is not the heir apparent to the Korean throne. He is the second son of the king but is expected to succeed since it is generally understood that the crown prince is an imbecile.

The young prince is one who will have an important part to play in the great Eastern question, Russia seeking his favor on the one hand and Japan on the other. He will be a distinguished member of any school that he may enter.

Important News from Spain.
(Special Dispatch to the Transcript.)

Washington, June 6.—There is very important news from Madrid today that says the Spanish crisis has been solved.

Secretary Sherman last evening received the following cablegram from United States Minister Hennis Taylor at Madrid: "Queen Regent has expressed unqualified approval of the present Cuban policy by reappointing the Canovas Ministry unchanged, as that was the only question really involved." This means more of Weyler.

William J. Calhoun, special commissioner to Cuba to investigate the death of Dr. Ruiz, returned today. He says three fittings were held on the case but declined to give his opinion on the matter.

Madrid, June 7.—The queen regent has confirmed Senor Canovas, the premier, in his ministerial powers, and the cabinet will remain in office with personnel and policy unchanged. All the leading members of the senate and of the chamber of deputies who were consulted by her majesty, as well as three marshals, have advised a recall of Captain General Weyler from Cuba.

At a cabinet council held yesterday afternoon at his residence, Senor Canovas, the premier, announced that the queen regent had renewed his powers as chief of the cabinet in terms most flattering to him and to all his colleagues.

It is understood that the government does not contemplate any immediate change in the supreme command in Cuba.

The surprise and displeasure of the various sections of the opposition are not easy to describe.

The solution of the crisis is a general surprise, as much, perhaps, in ministerial rank as in the work at large. It was thought, not without reason, that the councils of the higher military authorities, as represented by Marshal Campos, Marshal Blanco and Marshal Dominguez, would have inclined the crown toward a radical and distinct change of policy in the Cuban campaign.

This idea was especially prevalent as Senor Canovas has himself admitted that, both as regards reforms and the conduct of the war by Captain General Weyler, he had own hopes and aspirations but were scarcely being fulfilled.

The only explanation is that the first thought of the premier is to vindicate his honour proper so far as the Liberals are concerned, and when this is established to then proceed to the task of modifying the cabinet as to satisfy the Liberals and to terminate the deadlock before the cortes reassembles, which will probably not be for several months.

It can hardly be doubted that the modification would include the replacing of Captain General Weyler by some other commander.

NEWS CONFIRMED.
Washington, June 7.—Spanish minister Dupuy De Lome yesterday received a cablegram announcing the recall of the Cuban dictator in the matter of the Spanish premier and cabinet ministers, who recently tendered their resignations.

The minister's dispatch says that the queen reached her decision after consulting with the former premier and the marshals. Included in the former were Senor Sagasta, the present leader of the liberal party, and Martinez Campos, the captain general of Cuba, who gave way to General Weyler.

Mr. De Lome declined to discuss the possibilities of the retention in office of the present ministry in relation to the policy to be pursued with regard to Cuban affairs and the incumbency of Captain General Weyler.

Secretary Sherman also received a long cable dispatch from United States Minister Taylor at Madrid. Presumably it is in connection with the happenings of the day in that city, but as it was in cipher the secretary was unable to discuss its contents.

The secretary declined to make any statement in regard to the matter further than to suggest that it indicated the confidence of the queen in the ministry.

SULTAN A SCHEMER.
London, June 7.—The correspondent of The Standard at Constantinople says: Acting upon the advice of Izzet Bey the sultan is leaving the peace negotiations wholly in the hands of his ministers, thus evading personal responsibility, and placing himself in a position to evade them in case of popular indignation if necessary. It is reported that the palace party has entered into extensive stock exchange operations on the theory that the market will show a rise as the prospects of peace increase. The Ottoman ambassador at St. Petersburg has informed the porte that Count Nouravieff, the Russian foreign minister, told he personally objected to Russian intervention on behalf of Greece, and had counteracted the feminine intrigues started with that object, but the sultan induced the czar to intervene.

BUSINESS LOOKS BRIGHTER.

Unless all signs are to fail, there is a chance of better times ahead. There is a growing feeling of confidence, and from far and wide come reports of "business picking up a little." North Adams certainly is feeling that way, for the shoe business is better. Secretary Gage's positive statement that the administration has something in store that will surely and properly have a good effect.

Don's Financial Review for the week past says that the state of affairs in May by branches of business gives much encouragement. In a month of defaulted liabilities the month was the smallest since September, 1906, in manufacturing liabilities the smallest since November, 1905, and in trading liabilities, the smallest except the last month since September, 1904. Failure of general stores have not been as small in any other month as in May 1907, in only two months out of the year have been smaller failures in books and shoes and miscellaneous trading, only four in books and hats, only five in groceries, and not one trading class in that month has reported failures larger than in half the preceding months, though in furniture failures are rather numerous. In clothing manufacture the month was the smallest except four out of the six, except five in chemicals, six in wool goods, seven in machinery, lumber and miscellaneous manufactures, and exceeded the average only in iron and cotton goods and earthenware, owing to a few failures of exceptional size. Nobody can mistake the meaning of such returns.

The statement that except for the temporary depression in prices, the volume of business transacted is now larger than it was in 1902—the year of greatest prosperity—has been questioned by some. But a comparison of prices this week in the leading branches of manufacture not only confirms that view, but shows a remarkable similarity to the course of prices in the earlier months of 1903, when the most wonderful advances in production and prices ever known in this or any other country was close at hand. The key of the situation is the excessive production of some goods in advance of an expected increase in demand. So in 1897 consumption gradually gained, month by month, until suddenly it was found that the demand was greater than the possible supply. All know how the prices then advanced, and the most marvelous progress in the history of any country resulted within two years. Reports from all parts of the country now show that retail distribution of products is unusually large and increasing.

It seemed to be very awkward that Durand's attorneys have won on their appeal. The invitations to the hanging were all sent out.

We extend the hand of welcome to Editor Helmer of the Adams Freeman. We bespeak for him the cordial greeting in Adams that his past good record would warrant.

The people of Duluth are sure that they saw the miracle of a great battle in Cuba. Some commentators with considerable respect have suggested that they do not confine their beverage to that Venice of the unsalted seas to Lake Superior water. Not at all. The Duluth people were perfectly right. The great battles of Cuba are all in the air.

The campaign of the greatest interest in the whole country this will be the Ohio state election, where Mr. Hanna, as the closest representative of President McKinley, will be before the people as a senatorial candidate. The betting is even today that the silver men will carry the state. The Bryanites are preparing for a do-or-die battle out there.

O A Archer in his temperance talk at the Baptist church Sunday evening, made a remark as to the word "workingman" that could with profit be borne in mind by all in this and every other community. He said that the word "workingman" did not apply to any one class of a community, all are workmen save the dukes and loafers. That is true. Remembering it would give a better community spirit.

The Sultan can do a better gracefully in the matter of withdrawing his objections to President James B. Angell of Michigan University, appointed as ambassador to Turkey. But it is rather humiliating for the Congressional denomination to see that its policy and purpose is so little understood by the Moslem. For many years that denomination has been among the foremost in missionary work, and its tones have been agreed abroad over most of the uncivilized world. The heads of the denomination should combine to make the statement of their faith as clear as that of the Sultan of Turkey can make no mistake about it.

One by one the old familiar proverbs upon which the people rely slip their moorings and prove untrustworthy. The latest to yield is the old saying that "blighting never strikes twice in the same place." It would be impossible to estimate the number of persons who have, in reliance upon this saying, resigned themselves to a thunder storm. But they can do so no longer. Only the other day a man was stricken by lightning in his home in Louisiana. Two hours later a lady friend who had come in to assist the afflicted family was also stricken by a bolt of lightning and died instantly. How the greater knowledge of electricity and the improvements in electrical apparatus are revolutionizing all the old calculations of men.

Is it shrewdness or penuriousness? It seems that the printing business is peculiarly afflicted. Nearly every time nowadays that a man or a society has a two dollar job of printing to be done it seems to have become a fashion to "solicit bids" thereon, as if it were a quarter of a million dollar public building to be constructed. The little job is "hawked about" from one printing office to another, and the competitive bids thereon studied and compared. Thereupon the shrewd, or penurious, business man, or society committee, "avails the work" to the lowest bidder, quality of work and other circumstances not seemingly taken into consideration in any measure. What would be thought of a man, if he had a new shirt to buy, or a watch chain, if he would submit specifications thereof to all the haberdashers or jewelers of the city or neighborhood, asking them for bids thereon of a certain shirt to be furnished of a given size, style and texture, or a watch chain of specified weight or fineness, the job to be awarded to the lowest bidder? He would be considered either crazy or silly. Where's the difference in the two cases? What has the printing craft been guilty of that it should be marked for this display of silliness or penuriousness, or both?

The Grand Army has faced the school history question, and if the suggestion of the G. A. R. should lead to the submission of the task of compiling a non-partisan school history of the civil war to a commission of Northern and Southern educators who served in the respective armies, the commissioners will find it difficult to meet the views of all concerned unless they confine themselves to acknowledged facts, and give a bare skeleton of the events which led up to the war and of the progress of the great conflict. In sticking to the bare facts the commission will have to deal absolutely the same with both sides of the preliminary controversy, and with the soldiers of the confederacy. The New Orleans Pioneeer says on this point, in the way of advice to the compilers of an acceptable history: "Let the histories be a recital of facts so that the courage and patriotism and devotion and heroism of the Southern men will be recognized as equally with those of the Northern men a common heritage of the American people." This indicates the basis upon which the matter of a non-sectional school history can be made popular. It is to be hoped that united effort will be made to compile such a history.

Mr. Crittenden Denies It.

G. D. Crittenden of Sherburne Falls, the father of the murdered woman, Mrs. McClellan, writes the TRANSCRIPT that he himself has never had anything whatever to do with any spiritistic seance to determine the murderer of his daughter, as he has no faith in mediums or spirit power. He denies emphatically the current rumor which connects his name with anything of the sort.

There was a very pretty observance of flower Sunday at the Congregational church yesterday. It was conducted by the Sunday school children. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and foliage.

WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

A Local Occurrence That Will Interest Many Readers in North Adams.

If, when a fog horn warns the mariner to sheer off the coast, he still hugs the shore and wrecks upon it, whose fault is it? If the red switch light is up and the engine driver deliberately pulls ahead and pitches into another train, blame the driver. If a careless workman will in spite of warning try to find out how many teeth a buzz saw has, blame the workman. If a sick man knows that a certain medicine is doing him good and he carelessly neglects to use it, blame the man not the medicine. If North Adams people who have kidney complaint and backache, will not take Doan's Kidney Pills when they are indorsed by scores of citizens, blame the people, not the indorsers. Read this indorsement.

Mr. John W. Sargent of 119 Main street, says:—"You can use my name for all that it is worth in declaring Doan's Kidney Pills good for backache and other kidney trouble. I made the mistake of taking only three a day instead of the prescribed dose, but all the same they drove away the urinary trouble and my back stopped aching. For over five years had something wrong with my kidneys. It took me right over the hips in the small of the back and extended to the front of the abdomen. I thought and think so still that the distress in front was owing more to the stomach than the kidneys. I also suffered much from dizziness and I was much annoyed by a desire to urinate frequently. It took for a time to get up and walk away would give me excruciating pains in the small of the back. It stuck right to me and nothing even made any impression on it until I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Burlington and Durbey's drug store. They did help me, I found in one box greater relief than I had obtained in all my former doctoring."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents or sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

A Little Cough...
It is like a little leak in an automobile. We seek to wear frequently renewed oil, yet we say it is nothing there's plenty of oil. The wheel runs and does the work, and the through neglect this tiny stream goes on silently wasting its way into the cellar and until it becomes a regular river and then the wheel stops. You understand, the wheel stops for lack of power or more oil.

Dr. Stafford's Cough Cure
will mend that little leak before it wears its way like the stream, and becomes a mighty drain upon your system. Don't wait. Stop the trouble. Wasting is what sends thousands to Florida or some warm climate to breathe free air to return with the despairing cry, "Too late, too late." It need not tell you what a cold, cough and croup, and how a regular supply of this little leak stopper, will mend about that as we do only, don't wait. Above all, be thrifty.

SOME POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Senator Lawrence, Says the Boston Globe, May Be Next Congressman.

The Boston Globe is out with the following story, which probably enough Senator Lawrence knows nothing about. The Globe says: "Some of the politicians of North Adams are talking of a plan to try to make an arrangement with Pittsfield and other portions of the county giving to them the senatorship, and in return securing the support for Senator George F. Lawrence for congress."

The probability is that nothing has been said to Senator Lawrence, but the politicians are banking on his popularity just the same.

Congressman Wright said last year after he was given his third re-election that he should not ask for another. He found a number of places where the feeling was decidedly cool toward him, and it is an open secret that a number of the North Adams delegates were opposed to his nomination.

At the proper time, however, influence was brought to bear on them, and then two of the ablest of the politicians of North Adams were won to Pittsfield and talked constitutional law to the delegates there in such a way that they saw that slaters in broken for years to come unless Mr. Wright was given active help and the Berkshire delegation kept in line.

It was not until then that the Berkshire supporters of Senator Malou of Greenfield held consultations with him over the telephone and he withdrew his name. At that time he and 82 delegates pledged to his support where 100 were necessary to nominate.

It will be something entirely new in this section if a congressman is living here and can be dropped and another man of the same party and living in the same city selected as his successor.

There is no question but that Judge Lawrence would like to represent the district in congress. Since his election as senator it is held that he has shown considerable growth, and he is one of the men who can be genial and popular without loss of self respect or dignity.

No one knows what the plans of Senator Lawrence are. He is likely to return again to the senate, the way is clear, although he has held the office for three years, and the unwritten law has been two years and then give some other portion of the county a chance.

Mrs. Margaret Stevenson died Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock at her home, 70 Bracwell avenue, aged 74 years. She had been sick only one week. Her trouble began with a severe cold which resulted in a brain trouble, the cause of her death.

Mrs. Stevenson was a native of Scotland, but came to the United States in 1840. She had lived in North Adams 20 years, having come here with her family from Valatie, N. Y. Her husband died two years ago last December, but eight children survive her. All live in this city and were present with her in her last hours. They are Mrs. William McAdoo, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Eliza Sedgwick, Mrs. W. G. Nichols, Misses Mary and Emma and Thomas and James Stevenson.

Mrs. Stevenson had been for many years a member of the Congregational church. She was a sincere Christian, a devoted mother and a good neighbor and friend who was highly esteemed by those who knew her.

The funeral will be attended from the house Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. L. Fennedy officiating, and the remains will be taken to Valatie, N. Y., for interment.

New Editor of Freeman.

C. R. Helmer of South Norwalk, Conn., assumed management of the Adams Freeman this morning. He came to Adams Sedgwick, Mass., and with the people, as did his predecessor, Mr. Magenta, yet the people there will accord him the best of friendship and assistance.

Locating Street Lights.

The committee on street lighting has decided to set 100 gas lamps which will be distributed in all parts of the fire district in a way to make the service as nearly uniform as possible. The committee located 60 of the lamps Saturday and will soon designate the places for the other 40. The gas company will have to put in a new tank to bring its facilities up to the increased demand. The committee is composed of Dr. John Benson, Rev. Theodore Sedgwick and George B. Waterman, who will take pains to locate the lamps so as to give the district the best possible service.

Freshmen to Declaim.

The annual declamation contest of the freshmen class will be held in Goodrich hall Tuesday evening. Prof. F. T. Livingston will be the presiding officer. The judges will be Professor John H. The children spent the afternoon very happily with games and amusements of various kinds, and the event was crowned with a good supper which was not the least enjoyable feature. The youthful hostess received a number of pretty presents from her friends as souvenirs of the pleasurable and memorable occasion.

Public Library.

A suitable sign for the public library is to be made and placed on the front of the Cole block, in which the library is located. A box will also be placed in the library for suggestions as to what new books are desired, etc., and once a month all suggestions left in the box will be considered by the library committee. The idea is a good one, as it gives every patron of the library a chance to be heard, and the suggestions offered ought also to be helpful to the committee in the selection of new books.

The committee on street lighting has decided to set 100 gas lamps which will be distributed in all parts of the fire district in a way to make the service as nearly uniform as possible. The committee located 60 of the lamps Saturday and will soon designate the places for the other 40. The gas company will have to put in a new tank to bring its facilities up to the increased demand. The committee is composed of Dr. John Benson, Rev. Theodore Sedgwick and George B. Waterman, who will take pains to locate the lamps so as to give the district the best possible service.

The youthful hostess received a number of pretty presents from her friends as souvenirs of the pleasurable and memorable occasion.

Public Library.

A suitable sign for the public library is to be made and placed on the front of the Cole block, in which the library is located. A box will also be placed in the library for suggestions as to what new books are desired, etc., and once a month all suggestions left in the box will be considered by the library committee. The idea is a good one, as it gives every patron of the library a chance to be heard, and the suggestions offered ought also to be helpful to the committee in the selection of new books.

FOR TEMPERANCE

Another Gospel Meeting Held Under the Auspices of the Baptist Church.

A GOOD CROWD PRESENT

Rev. Mr. Clare, O. A. Archer and Dr. G. W. Brown Among the Speakers. All Had Earnest Words for the Cause.

Another gospel temperance meeting was held in the Baptist church Sunday evening. The church was well filled, and a deep interest in temperance work was manifested by the close attention given the speakers by the audience.
Daniel Clare, the young man who is temporarily supplying the Baptist pulpit, was the first and chief speaker of the evening. His address was a really eloquent appeal for men to align themselves on the side of God in the great temperance struggle. Mr. Clare pictured the greatness of the evil—the numberless victims strewn all the shores of time. He dwelt especially on the great numbers arrayed in the liquor business, 500,000 liquor men in the United States alone active in their work of destruction. The traffic of England and America in liquor was referred to, especially the traffic carried on with barbarous and semi-barbarous people of the East. The way in which every individual could help the temperance cause was by strict total abstinence. That is the only safe ground. God could help all to be rescued from the power of Intemperance, and God's power alone could often accomplish this result. All were asked to come out on God's side in putting down the awful curse.
O. A. Archer was next called upon to speak, and he said that he would speak of the economics of "the moderate drinker." He spoke of a new town that would deprive many workers of work, needing only a boy to feed in the cotton. The problem of living has become much harder because of new inventions. Accordingly economy is more necessary to all workers. The moderate drinking workman, who takes a little drink every day and is not considered a drunkard, has children, and yet finds himself saved, although he is still only a "moderate drinker." The part of his wages that should have been savings dribble into North Adams saloons, whose owners flourish and can send their children to school while the "moderate drinker's" children are in the mill as soon as the law allows. Mr. Archer cited the case of other men in the Blackinton mills who had not drunk, and had retired from work on a competence. The contract teaches its own lesson. Mr. Hopkins, who is now such a traveler, was cited as such a one. Mr. Archer in closing favored a vote for no license and the use of personal influence.

Dr. George W. Brown spoke briefly. He would like to speak to three men: (1) The strong drinker, he had a chance to be saved, not an even chance, but he should begin to stop drinking at once, and help to save the next man. (2) The man who drinks some; he never knows his danger; he is liable to slip; he is here before he knows it. (3) The man who doesn't drink at all, yet keeps silent, does nothing for temperance. This man should array himself at once on the temperance side and show his colors.
Mr. Clare in his remarks quoted the startling statistics of liquor consumption in the United States the past year, compiled by the American Grocer of New York. They are as follows in gallons: Beer (domestic), 539,662,857; beer (imported), 8,300,581; whiskey (exclusive of quantity used in arts), 270,000,000; wines (domestic), 29,199,514; wine (imported), 20,580,935; grand total, 859,553,352. Consumption per capita for 11,000,000 people, spirit, 1 gallon; wine 25-100 gallon, beer, 15-10 gallons.
A Pugnistic Relic.
The once great John L. Sullivan, for 12 years the king of the prize ring, was seen by a fair sized audience at the Columbia opera house on Saturday evening. The maker and spender of a dozen handsome fortunes is now traveling with a cheap vaudeville show. The performance, however, of Saturday evening was the last of the season and the company disbanded here.
Sullivan is doubtless the greatest prize-fighter who ever stepped into the ring. He would unquestionably be the undisputed champion today, and for many years to come, had it not been for his habits. He allowed King Corn to conquer him and then Corbett came along and claimed the victory in his name. But alcohol and its attendant vices whipped him first and Corbett faced an already beaten man. Fat, flabby, only a fair specimen of the over-fed brute fit for the fat stock show, he stood before his audience at the Columbia, a striking example of what vicious habits can do towards the physical ruin of a once perfect specimen of muscular manhood.
Sullivan's poses illustrating the knock-out blow given by Fitzsimmons to Corbett recently at Carson City were very unsatisfactory. It was one light left-hander delivered on another fellow's ribs and it was over. The vaudeville performance accompanying the passe pugilist was creditable.

THEY SMOTE THE BALL MIGHTILY.

Arnold Print Works Ball Players Have a Lot of Fun Too.

Two teams representing the machine and pipe departments of the Arnold Print works played a most exciting game of base ball on the fair grounds Saturday afternoon before about 300 people. The machinists won the toss, and Tennant opposed the pitching of Ross Piper. Church with Plumber Connors catching. Evidently Tennant is a good church goer for he seemed quite comfortable with the delivery. He made a good hit to left field and when the ball was once more in the diamond he was nicely tumbling second base. Dalton was next to bat and he walked while Tennant stole third. Dalton stole second and Davidson made a pretty single which scored two runs. Peat took first on balls and at the close of the innings they had tallied four runs.
Master Mechanic Peat and Dalton were the battery for the machinists and the first inning closed with the score of 4 to 0 in their favor. As they made seven more in the next, it looked extremely rocky for the Piper's nine that day. After 29 runs had been made (Machinists 16, Piper's 13) Tennant substituted Beard, while for the Piper's Eason faced Connors in lieu of Church.
It had been decided to close the game at the end of the seventh, but the Piper's (being behind) wished to continue the game and grim battle to its bitter end, and the Machinists, ever ready to oblige, managed to get shut out in the eighth. By having five men score the pitcher while the score which was 22 each. There was some little time wasted while Scorekeeper Lewis tried to convince the umpire that Connors being out once that innings had no right to go to bat a second time. At the commencement of the ninth the excitement was so intense that even the white duck pants were still for 45 seconds. But the lost motion was quickly neutralized when the machinists made 5 runs. As the pipers could not score the game resulted in a victory for the machinists of 37 to 23.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Holy Cross of Worcester defeated William of Weston Saturday afternoon by a score of 8 to 2. Batteries, McKenna and Koney, Plunkett and Davis. Ellis, Holy Cross 8; Williams & Errors, Holy Cross 2; Williams 6.
The second annual intercollegiate athletic meet between Amherst, Williams and Dartmouth was held at Amherst on Saturday. Amherst won by 55 points as against 40 each for their opponents. Amherst scored seven firsts, Williams five firsts and tied one and Dartmouth won two and tied one. A large part of Dartmouth's score came from seconds and thirds, first counting five points, seconds three and thirds one.
Dartmouth defeated Amherst in one of the closest games in the tri-college contest at Amherst on Saturday by a score of 8 to 1.
Williams has for the third consecutive year a clinch in the tri-college baseball contest. The only combination that can beat Williams is for Dartmouth to win both of the games on Wednesday and Saturday, and for Williams to lose one of the other two games she has to play in the series.
On Saturday morning North Venzie street beat River street by 19 to 12. Batteries, North Venzie, Brackley and Green; River street, Ginty and Craven.
On Saturday afternoon Lower North street defeated Upper North street by a score of 23 to 21. Batteries, Lower North street, P. McPhail and D. McPhail; Upper North street, Prindle and Murnaghan.
Pretty poor game Saturday.
Raidy, the new left fielder, is proving to be all that his Adams admirers claimed for him. He now allows Captain Scharf to do the necessary kicking.
William Motz, the right fielder, left today for Lewiston, Me., to play on the team at that place. His absence will be regretted by many, for "Slim" was not only a good ball player but a first rate fellow as well.
Dooley continues to be the favorite with the crowd. When he steps to the bat this cry goes forth for him to "pound it out" and he usually responds to the request.
Manager Lawson will endeavor to get another game with Williams for Wednesday. When the team meets a good game results and picking the winner is not an easy matter.
North Adams people want to see Manager Lawson's name go up against one really first-class nine. Don't play against babies all the time, Manager Lawson. Get one of the Eastern league teams to come here when they have an open date. How would the Ponies do?

LOST GIRL.

P. A. Flanders found a little girl on North Eagle street this forenoon who was lost. He took her to the police station, where she gave her name as Viola May Kietzel. She said she was four years old and lived on Park street, and that she had started to go home from the French school when she became lost. The officers learned that she knew some one on Center street and she was taken there by Mr. Flanders.

BEATEN WITH EASE

The Central Park Club of Orange Were the Victims Saturday.

SUTTY DID A GOOD BUSINESS

For There Was Plenty of Time to Eat Peanuts. The North Adams Team Nearly Prostrated by Too Much Base Running.

It was a peanut game at Lawsonian field Saturday afternoon, for more of the 700 or so spectators gave their attention to eating peanuts than to watching the baseball players. The Central Park club of Orange were the opponents of the strong North Adams team but they were so entirely inferior in every way that it is an exaggeration to call them such. It was a good opportunity for North Adams' hitters to listen their hitting averages and the chance was not slighted.
The score by innings tells the tale in a few figures and the absence of ciphers in the North Adams record shows what was done with the visitors. The Orange players tried hard enough but handled the ball slowly and threw poorly. Ward, the third baseman for the visitors, made error after error and invariably when a head and hands should have been steady. O'Brien let one ball go by him, and threw once wretchedly to Dooley. He made up for his errors later in the game by playing his position well. Hogan, the visiting pitcher, was pounded all over, while McCann struck the Orange men out almost at will. Three of their hits were made in the ninth, but it was too late to count.
Scharf, Drew, Motz, Raidy and McCann batted hard and often, Raidy being especially clever with the club. Scharf's home run was made in the third with Summers and McCann on bases. The ball went over the center fielder's head and Johnson could not find it in the grass for several minutes. The game was so much one sided that the spectators lost interest and when it was over not one but four teams were present. The score by innings and summary is:
North Adams, 2 4 3 4 3 2 1 2—23
Central Park, 0 1 0 1 0 0 1 1—7
Hits, North Adams 30, Central Park 11; errors, North Adams 9, Central Park 11; earned runs, North Adams 3, stolen bases, McCann, Summers, Dooley, Scharf, Sullivan, O'Brien, Motz, Ward, Tracy, Sprague, two base hits, Raddy 2, Drew, Ward, home run, Scharf, first base on balls, Scharf, Dooley, Johnson, Ward, struck out, Motz, Ward, Tracy, Sprague, Hogan, Johnson 2, Spooner, Tracey, Ward, McCann, Summers, Dooley, Sullivan, O'Brien 2, batters hit, McCann, Summers, Dooley, double play, O'Brien, Scharf and Dooley; passed balls, Summers, Lucy; wild pitches, McCann 3, Hogan; time, 2:30; umpire, Ryan.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTABLES.

Will Visit the City Friday. The Public Invited to a Free Lecture.

Arrangements have been completed today, and on Friday of this week this city and the normal school will be very fortunate in having present three members of the state board of education, Mr. Alton Freeman Palmer, formerly president of Wellesley college and now connected with the university at Chicago, Hon. E. B. Stoddard, chairman of the board of visitors of this school, and the honored president of Williams college, Franklin Carter. In the afternoon there will be an inspection of the normal school and its environment. At 8 o'clock in the evening at the normal school, Mrs. Palmer will give an address, and will be followed by President Carter and Colonel Stoddard. The public and the teachers of Northern Berkshire, one and all, are cordially invited to attend. Such an opportunity to receive inspiration from our great leaders in education seldom occurs and a large gathering is anticipated.

About Those Water Colors.

EDITOR TRANSCRIPT—Permit me to say a word for Mr. H. B. Pettis who is exhibiting a collection of water colors at the rooms of the Berkshire club. About 10 years ago I met Mr. Pettis in Paris on one of his annual trips to Europe for the collection of pictures, at which time I became somewhat familiar with his enterprise and the means at his command for its successful pursuit. Mr. Pettis is, and has been for many years in close touch with the European art centers, and he well knows where to find the best work of which he is a most competent judge. The public can rely on his representations and can rest assured that no trashy art work ever passes through his hands. It will be a rich treat to the lovers of art to view his exhibit and to fortify their taste for our wealthy citizens to be able to add some of specimens to their collections.

COMMUNICATION.

EDITOR TRANSCRIPT—Why do men still insist on spitting tobacco juice on women's dresses and on the sidewalks? One evening last week two ladies were walking on one of the principal streets of this city when a man crowded upon them and spit upon one of the ladies' skirts. Do men do such things call themselves respectable men or respectable citizens? Can not the men of this city try to rise above those of other cities? Can not this most abominable habit be stopped?
Young men and old, will you not try to stop this habit? Will you not protect the clothes of your women folk? Would you like to have your mother's, your sister's, your wife's, or your daughter's clothes ruined by this habit? I ask this as one woman out of the many hundreds in this city.

NOT A WISE LEGISLATURE.

Criticism of the General Court and a North Adams Member.

The Sunday Springfield Republican took occasion to comment adversely on the present legislature's work, and in doing so spoke of C. Q. Richmond of this city in a way that will not probably enlarge his bump of self esteem, nor make him feel that a recent utterance of his struck the Republican editor "where he lived." The Republican said:
The legislature is likely to conclude its labors this week and submit its record for the consideration of the people. It will be a grievous one for the thoughtful taxpayer to contemplate. The session opened with talk about economy, and there was some wastefulness exercised and over small salary bills, but big appropriations have had the right of way, the greater the sum involved the easier the passage of the measure. The house has been stronger than the senate in debating power, but it will remain to be written that great corporate measures have carried the day in both branches. It is true in Massachusetts as in the nation that more and more the people are compelled to look to the exercise of the veto power in the hands of a strong executive as their protection against ill-advised legislation. This is especially the case when the log rolling of grabbing interests carries the day in the legislature or in congress. The most convincing arguments are powerless against the great spirit which the people are pooled, after the frank fashion set forth by Representative Richmond of North Adams when Boston's dock scheme was under consideration. "Did you see any Massachusetts, which has had the big highway appropriation, secured the Hocking and expects to profit by the mill school law, and the Hocking in this bill?" asked the Berkshire member. The line of argument is vicious in the extreme, but it is avails in this world age.

BEATEN WITH EASE

SUTTY DID A GOOD BUSINESS

For There Was Plenty of Time to Eat Peanuts. The North Adams Team Nearly Prostrated by Too Much Base Running.

It was a peanut game at Lawsonian field Saturday afternoon, for more of the 700 or so spectators gave their attention to eating peanuts than to watching the baseball players. The Central Park club of Orange were the opponents of the strong North Adams team but they were so entirely inferior in every way that it is an exaggeration to call them such. It was a good opportunity for North Adams' hitters to listen their hitting averages and the chance was not slighted.
The score by innings tells the tale in a few figures and the absence of ciphers in the North Adams record shows what was done with the visitors. The Orange players tried hard enough but handled the ball slowly and threw poorly. Ward, the third baseman for the visitors, made error after error and invariably when a head and hands should have been steady. O'Brien let one ball go by him, and threw once wretchedly to Dooley. He made up for his errors later in the game by playing his position well. Hogan, the visiting pitcher, was pounded all over, while McCann struck the Orange men out almost at will. Three of their hits were made in the ninth, but it was too late to count.
Scharf, Drew, Motz, Raidy and McCann batted hard and often, Raidy being especially clever with the club. Scharf's home run was made in the third with Summers and McCann on bases. The ball went over the center fielder's head and Johnson could not find it in the grass for several minutes. The game was so much one sided that the spectators lost interest and when it was over not one but four teams were present. The score by innings and summary is:
North Adams, 2 4 3 4 3 2 1 2—23
Central Park, 0 1 0 1 0 0 1 1—7
Hits, North Adams 30, Central Park 11; errors, North Adams 9, Central Park 11; earned runs, North Adams 3, stolen bases, McCann, Summers, Dooley, Scharf, Sullivan, O'Brien, Motz, Ward, Tracy, Sprague, two base hits, Raddy 2, Drew, Ward, home run, Scharf, first base on balls, Scharf, Dooley, Johnson, Ward, struck out, Motz, Ward, Tracy, Sprague, Hogan, Johnson 2, Spooner, Tracey, Ward, McCann, Summers, Dooley, Sullivan, O'Brien 2, batters hit, McCann, Summers, Dooley, double play, O'Brien, Scharf and Dooley; passed balls, Summers, Lucy; wild pitches, McCann 3, Hogan; time, 2:30; umpire, Ryan.
